

Emergency Preparedness

Be Prepared

Lee College is committed to the safety of its students, employees, and guests.

In an emergency, taking personal responsibility is key; all Lee College students and employees should be familiar with the college's emergency preparedness procedures in order to help ensure their own safety and that of others.

Information on this website should be useful to you in the event of an emergency and as a reminder of good safety habits.

[FIND A CAREER
My Next Move](#)