12.2 If Purchaser suspends Seller's performance hereunder, the scheduled dates for Seller's performance set forth in the Purchase Order shall be adjusted to reflect the impact of any delays resulting from the suspension. Adjustment to the Seller's scheduled dates for performance shall constitute Seller's sole and exclusive remedy for any suspension directed by Purchaser.

Upon payment under this Article 13.3, Seller shall transfer to Purchaser title to all unfinished Goods for which such payment is made.

13.4 In no event shall Seller be compensated for burden, overhead, indirect expenses, or anticipated profits for itself or for its Vendors for that portion of the work that is terminated.

14.0 TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT

If Purchaser terminates the Purchase Order only in part, Seller shall continue performance of the Purchase Order to the extent not terminated.

14.2 Upon termination under this Article 14.0, Purchaser shall not be required to make any additional payments to Seller unless and until replacement goods have been delivered and installed, and it has been determined that there are no excess costs. In no event, however, shall Purchaser be liable to Seller for the payment of any remaining balance of the total purchase price to the extent that the balance exceeds that portion of the total price attributable to that portion of the Goods conforming to the requirements of the Purchase Order and delivered and accepted by Purchaser prior to termination under this Article 14.0.

15.0 FORCE MAJEURE

15.1 Neither Seller nor Purchaser shall be responsible or liable for, or deemed in breach of the Purchase Order because of any delay in the performance of their respective obligations hereunder if and to the extent that such delay is due to an event of Force Majeure, which is defined to be any event that causes such delay in performance and which is beyond the reasonable control of the party incurring the delay, such as war, civil insurrection, fires, floods, strong typhoons, epidemics, earthquakes, embargo restrictions, quarantine restrictions, strikes or other labor activities, actions or failures to act on the part of governmental authorities preventing performance, and transportation accidents. In no instance shall any event that is caused by the intentional act, error, omission or negligence of the Seller be considered Force Majeure entitling Seller to relief under this Article 15.0.

15.2 If a Force Majeure event occurs that will delay Seller in the performance of its obligations under this Purchase Order, Seller shall promptly notify Purchaser in writing of such condition and the cause thereof no later than ten (10) calendar days after the event of Force Majeure.

15.3 If Seller experiences a delay caused by a Force Majeure event and provided Seller has given Purchaser written notice thereof as set forth in Article 15.2, the required schedule date for delivery of the Goods and any other required dates for performance by Seller shall be equitably adjusted to reflect the delay caused by such Force Majeure event.

16.5 Seller shall not be required to redesign, repair, or replace Goods that are defective or that fail to conform to the warranties set forth in Article 16.2 by reason of Purchaser's failure to install, operate or maintain the Goods in accordance with Seller's instructions or by reason of normal wear and tear.

16.6 If the Purchaser in its sole discretion determines that the requirements of its schedule will be adversely affected if the repair, redesign, or replacement is not performed prior to the expiration of the ten (10) day period, then the redesign, repair or replacement may be made by Purchaser and all costs therefore shall be to Seller's account, provided, however, that Purchaser, as applicable, has given written notice thereof to Seller and afforded Seller the opportunity to redesign, repair or replace the Goods within the time determined by Purchaser to be required.

If any such lien is filed or claim is made, Seller shall remove the lien or defend against any such claim. If Seller fails to remove such lien or claim within a reasonable period of time, Purchaser may proceed to remove such lien or claim, and Seller represents and agrees that the Purchase Order price shall be reduced by the amount required to remove the lien plus all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by Purchaser for the removal of such lien or claim.

24.0 CLAIMS
